From the Back Cover
The new Graduate Medical Education Directory (Green Book) provides medical students with information for making one of the most important professional decisions of their careers. This resource features the most accurate and up-to-date information available on 8,250 ACGME accredited and combined residency and fellowship programs in the United States. Through its annual survey of all accredited and board-approved GME programs, the AMA has identified over 6,500 changes and incorporated them into the 2005-2006 Green Book. This includes 1,200 changes in program directors, 170 new programs, 86 withdrawn programs, and a revised listing of teaching institutions. This is the only reference that delivers complete and current information for planning a medical career. Essential to any medical or reference library, the Green Book provides:

- Comprehensive GME program listings including program director, address, phone, fax, and e-mail address
- ACGME institutional and program requirements for 121 specialties/subspecialties
- Certification requirements for 24 medical specialty boards
- Teaching institutions that sponsor GME programs
- Information on programs that offer combined specialty training
- A list of US medical schools accredited by the Liaison Committee on Medical Education
- A complete glossary of graduate medical education terms
