If you're a fan of romance, teenage life, and good story telling then give this manga a shot!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. I love this series (2 volumes)By Pao XiongOkay so in full honesty, I love this series (2 volumes). The characters and the plot is beautiful; well done. But the only reason for my rating is because of the ending being a bit unsatisfying. It could have been better. Love the Anime adaptation as well! It seems like Anime has finally been getting more interesting. Let's hope 2017 unravels something greater in the Anime community. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful.

Good story- possible misprint? By T. Gruhn
Awesome story- you fall in love with the characters right off the bat! Some good twists in here, too. One thing I noticed was about the print though, it seems there is a set of pages that is repeated twice. I'm not sure if it's supposed to be this way since the reprint is identical. I also think its missing something. in online versions, the friends tell Kakeru to join the men's beauty contest and so on, but I never read that in the book. Wondering if there was a printing mistake here?

EISNER NOMINATED SERIES
SA Plea From the Future
On the day that Naho begins 11th grade, she receives a letter from herself ten years in the future. At first, she writes it off as a prank, but as the letters predictions come true one by one Naho realizes that the letter might be the real deal. Her future self tells Naho that a new transfer student, a boy named Kakeru, will soon join her class. The letter begs Naho to watch over him, saying that only Naho can save Kakeru from a terrible future. Who is this mystery boy, and can Naho save him from his destiny? The heart-wrenching sci-fi romance that has over million copies in print in Japan!
