

Qualitative Research Methodologies for Occupational Science and Therapy

From Routledge

*DOC | audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

 Download

 Read Online

#1357083 in Books 2016-11-09 Original language: English 9.00 x 6.00 x .501, #File Name: 1138283509254 pages | File size: 56.Mb

From Routledge : Qualitative Research Methodologies for Occupational Science and Therapy before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Qualitative Research Methodologies for Occupational Science and Therapy:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer Easily organized book for qualitative study.

The push for evidence-based practice has increased the demand for high-quality occupational science and occupational therapy research from conceptualisation of the study through to publication. This invaluable collection explores how to produce rigorous qualitative research by presenting and discussing a range of methodologies and methods that can be used in the fields of occupational science and therapy. Each chapter, written by an experienced researcher in the relevant methodology, includes examples of research, foundational knowledge and therapeutic applications. Including new and cutting-edge methodologies, the book covers: Qualitative Descriptive Grounded Theory Phenomenology Narrative Ethnography Action Research Case Study Critical Discourse Analysis Visual Methodologies Metasynthesis Appreciative Inquiry Critical Theory and Philosophy Designed for occupational science and occupational therapy researchers, this book develops the readers ability to produce and critique high quality qualitative research that is epistemologically sound and rigorous.

About the Author Shoba Nayar is a Senior Lecturer in the postgraduate public health program at the School of Public Health and Psychosocial Studies, and Associate Director of the Centre for Migrant and Refugee Research, Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand. Shoba is President of the Association of the Journal of Occupational Science and an associate editor for the Journal of Occupational Science. Mandy Stanley is a Senior Lecturer in the occupational therapy program at the School of Health Science and member of the International Center for Allied Health Evidence, University of South Australia, Australia. Mandy is President of the Australasian Society of Occupational Scientists and an associate editor for the Journal of Occupational Science.