Cheryl L. Atkinson : Research Presentations of Dietetic Internship Participants: Research Proceedings - Nutrition and Food Section before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Research Presentations of Dietetic Internship Participants: Research Proceedings - Nutrition and Food Section:

The research presentations of the Southern University Dietetic Interns presented in this Research Proceeding, is the first in a series of original works designed and conducted by post-baccalaureate students enrolled in the supervised practice experience program known as the Dietetic Internship.
