I had the first volume (issues 1-8) for about three years before I finally decided to figure out what happened next. I ordered this over the holidays (I know!) and I expected to get it sometime around Jan. 15th or so. I actually got it the third and the condition was unbelievable! The condition i choose was good-acceptable. The one i got was like BRAND SPANKING NEW.

Not even any creases, these guys underestimate themselves. + Delivery was quick (got it through the USPS aka snail mail) which surprised me. I now know my go to guys for books at . You guys rock. 3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. A Solid Finish to the Greatest Superhero Story Ever By Russell S. Newquist My friend Richard calls "Rising Stars" the "Greatest Superhero Story Ever". Richard has vastly less experience reading comics than I do, so I find it hard to completely concur. I can remember some storylines from back in the day that were pretty amazing. But this series is definitely up there, and it blew me away. Part three is a solid ending that treats the story well, but to me it never quite lives up to the level of the first two collections. Of course, that's really more of a statement about how AWESOME the first two parts are. This part is still VERY good, just not quite up to par with them. Check this one out if you love superheroes. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great graphic Novel By Starlight This is Rising Stars Vol. 3 Chapters 17-24 The 3rd part of a 3 part series. You made your choices... This is the ending result... All the powers in the Universe and in the end, only human after all. You wish you did better, you wish you had known but... being human means coming to the world without an owners manual. I highly recommend the series.

Writer J. Michael Straczynski's superhero tour-de-force reaches its stunning conclusion as the final fate of the 113 "Pederson Specials" is revealed. The final chapter of one of the greatest comic series EVER is now available in trade paperback for your bookshelf! Collects Rising Stars #17-24.
