supernatural, be romantic, and be action packed as well, and luckily this manga is full of all three of those elements that make a great manga. I would recommend this manga for people 14 years and older. This manga does contain mild romantic and fantasy violence scenes which may not be appropriate for younger age groups. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love!! By Britney Carrier Once again she does a wonderful job. Her artwork is amazing and so is this storyline. I can't wait for what's next. Going to keep buying this series! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good By Jude ~3.5/5 There was a big plot line featuring Ruriho and Sakura in this volume. I think I'm interested in Ruriho more than Sakura, and really just hope that Ruriho turns out okay. There was a lot of change for her in this volume, and hopefully it's for the best. There was also a big change for Asagiri, that I found very sad, but is probably really fitting and not terribly surprising. There was a confrontation with Enju, and I'm not really sure what's going to happen next. I wish I was more involved, more emotional, for this series, but I'm just not. I'm just not attached enough to the main characters, or any of the characters really. I want to be, but I'm not. Either way, the next volume is the last, which I wasn't expecting. I don't really know how it's going to end, but I do look forward to seeing how it happens. And I definitely want some closure for everything between Enju, and for Kohaku and Hayate and Shuri. Their whole relationship is a mess, and I want something to be done about that. I'll find out in February, I guess.
